CHECK THE CINCINNATIS. Champion Ortoles Shut Out by the Louis Straight Game-Boston Beaten by Cleve-land-Chicagos Again Defeated-Notes.

The surprise of the season is the success attained by the Cincinnati players, who won their eventh straight game yesterday. Ewing's men pulled out a victory in the sixth inning, when ther found Dobeny's curves for four runs. As there was no game at St. Louis, the latter club and the New Yorks are now tied for tenth place. The Pittaburghs added another defeat to the Quakers' string of consecutive losing games, which enabled the Washingtons, by their victory over the Chicagos, to pull up on even terms with the Philadelphias. Louisville only made one run yesterday, but the solitary tally was all that was required to defeat the champion Balti-mores. The game at Cleveland was won by the home team. The results: Cincinnati, 4: New York, 2.

CINCINNATI, May 21.—While they did not beat the Reda, New York gave Cincinnati the greatest scars they had since Brooklyn jumped on them for that opening cluster of nine. The coming of the New Yorks was made a festal occasion. There was a concert, and at lessa; a thousand ladies graced the amphitheatre. To look out at the throng it would have been hard to believe that it was Derby Day at Oakley, only ten miles away. The crowd was as film as a convention of mules until the sixth funing. Doheny proved a puzzle. New York bad the only run that had been made up to that time. Capt. Gleason had singled, stole second, and tallied op Burke's mulf of Stafford's fly, which was misjudged.

Only four Reds succeeded in cultivating the acquaintance of Bill Clark during those five innings of silence. Burke and Miller had tried to purion bases, but found Wilson's threwing apparatus in good condition. Only one of the two hits to Chicinnati's credit was clean cut. That on Foreman's account was a grounder that jumped over George Davis's head.

The sixth turned up runs caough to enable Cincinnati to win. Foreman was the first man up, and he was sent to base on balls. Burke tried to sacrifice, turned off two fouls, and then cracked away for a single to centre. Hoy perished in the cause of their advancement by pushing the ball to the slab. Miller sent a short fly to right that Tiernan could not reach, and Foreman brought home the tying run, whereat there was much thankegiving. After Miller had stolen second. Vaughn sent the bell on a line to left centre and both Miller and Burke scored. On Harry Davis's throw plateward, an altogether useless performance, Vaughn proceeded to Scoond, scoring on Gray's hit also to left. Gray tried to steal second, but didn't succeed, and after that only one more Red reached first base. That was Burke in the e SCHENGETADY, May 21.—Jacob Baum, the local director in the New York State Baseball League, received the following notice of the sudden demise of that organization lass night from B. H. Simrons of Amsterdam, Secretary to the league: 'I say just in receipt of a communication from Mr. Marray of Gloversville, announcing that that city will be chilged to withdraw from 'he State League. As Johnstown does not intent, to revain in the circuit, this presumably ends the State League. The cause of the failure of the League is due to the fact that most of those who composed it, in Amsterdam, Johnstown, Gloversville, and this city, are young men who work for a living and cannot afford to give up their regular employment to follow the diamend.

CHAMPIONS GALLOP HOME. HENRY OF NAVARRE AND ONE LOVE WIN RACES. Only Callegs for the Great Five-year-old and the Brookdale's Spleaded Pilly-Rhodesto, a Smart Baughter of Wisdom.

When Shakespeare II. beat their good colt Sherlock last week the Measra. Fleischmann of Cincinnati determined to own him, and at once began negotiations with Walden & Sons. The son of Plenipo accordingly ran in their name and colors for the Barchester Stakes at Morris Park yesterday and won with the most ridiculous case, beating Volley, Carib, Honolulu, and Izmir so handly that it was scarcely a race at all. The weather was raw and uncomfortable in the extreme, and it would have been a spirit less and dull day's sport but for the appearance of those champions Henry of Navarre and One I Love. Mr. Belmont's great five-year-old was in grand form evidently, and while he had only the commonest kind of platers to beat in Mingo II, and Ventanna, the chestnut horse strode through the mud as though he liked it. There was a world of power in the movements of the horse, and he will be hard to beat when he atrikes the top division, even with the weights against him. As for One I Love, Trainer Rowe thought her hardly up to a race. She looked big and round. It was a treat to see her romp away from her opponents when Clayton gave her her head half a mile from home. Shakespeare II. was, of course, a prohibitive favorite for the Baychester Stakes, Volley and Carib being about equal second choices. Hono-lulu was an added starter, Doggett having the mount. Doggett did not care to get his jacket wet or muddy if he could help it, and he made a bld for the lead at flagfall. Taral was of the same way of thinking, and as Shakespeare II. had more speed than any of the others, he got to the front in short order. Once there, it was all over but the shooting, Shakespeare II. win-ning in a big gallop. Carib passed Volley on the upper turn as handily as a trolley car would whiz past an ice wagon, but coming home he weakened sadly, and second money went to Vol-ley without an argument. Carib was third, five lengths away, while Honolulu and Izmir were beaten fifty yards.

lengths awar, while Honolulu and Izmir were beaten fifty yards.

Domingo, the black horse owned by Fleischmann & Sons, which made such a profitable campaign in New Orleans last winter, was favorite for the opening race at six and a half furlongs. Domingo is a very slow beginner, and he was outrun in the first quarter by his three opponents. On the upper turn Doggett moved up with the favorite, and turning for home there wasn't much to choose between the leading trio, Factotum dropping back as the black horse made his bit for the lead. It was a drive home, wasn't much to choose between the leading trio, Factotum dropping back as the black horse made his bid for the lead. It was a drive home, Hanwell lasting long enough to win by a short neck. Griffin had something up his sieeve, and Hanwell could have won by a greater distance had he been ridden out to the last onnee. Runaway was third. Factotum pulled up lame, and unless Bill Daly gives him a rest he will break down.

had be been ridden out to the last connee. Runaway was third. Factotum pulled up lame, and unless Bill Daly gives him a rost he will break down.

There were fourteen starters for the race for maiden two-year-old fillies at half a mile. The talent plunged on the very handsome representative of the Measrs. Keene, a round, smooth bay filly, by Wisdom, the famous English sire, out of Faustine. Athy led, with Contship II, in second place, until the last sixteenth of a mile, where Khodesia drew out and was winning handliy when Lady Louise, a filly from the Fleischmann string, which came from the extreme rear division, closed with a marvellous burst of speed, and forced Doggett to ride the favorite hard in order to win by half a length. Athy was third, three lengths away, with Naughty Girl fourth.

One I Love was not known to be good enough to bet on, although on last year's form she could carry 130 pounds and win over the field opposed to her yesterday. It was her first race this season, and as it was known that she had been under the weather there was a remarkably good price against the smart daughter of Minting. Intermission was the one selected to bother the Brookdale filly, but when Clayton called on her she fairly smothered her opponents, and won pulling up. Brilliancy, last away and a couple of lengths behind the bunch, ran past the others before they had gone haif a mile and was a good second. PRINCE LIEF'S UAKLEY DERBY.

A Clever Victory for Byron McClelland's Colt.-M. F. Dwyer Buys Bulsun. OARLEY, May 21.—Despite the lowering skies to-day, an immense crowd was present to see the inaugural Oakley Derby decided. The track was good, the rains of yesterday having made it only a trifle lumpy. The starters in the Derby were Ben Brush, 122 (Simms); Ben Eder, 122 (Scherrer); Loki, 117 (Thorpe); Prince Lief, 117 (Perkins); Semper Ego, 117 (Bunn); Parson, 109 (Britton). The opening betting was; Dwyer's entry, 1 to 2; Prince Lief, 2½ to 1; Loki, 4 to 1; Parson, 6 to 1. Post betting— Dwyer's entry, 11 to 20; Prince Lief, 2; Loki

After parading before the grand stand, amid a round of applause, Loki and Thorpe receiving the greatest share, they started for the post They were there only a few moments when Starter Pettingill dropped the flag to a pretty start, with Prince Lief in the lead, Parson second, Loki third, with Ben Brush and Ben Eder close up. Ben Eder moved up as they passed the stand and led by a head.

At the quarter Ben Eder led by a neck, with Prince Lief second and Loki third, a head in front of Ben Brush. Before the half was reached Prince Lief was leading by a nair length, with Eder second and Brush third. At the three-quarters the order was the same, and at the mile Prince Lief, Eder, and Brush were closely bunched. Coming down the stretch Perkins shook up his mount, and Prince Lief drew away and went under the wire two lengths in front of Ben Eder, with Ben Brush third.

M. F. Dwyer purchased the brown filly Suisun, by Strathmore-Beatrice, from John Madden this morning. The price was $12,500. Summaries to-day:

Third Race-Five furiongs. Red V., 104 (F. Willmans), 2 to 1, won; Olympus, 104 (Gleason), 5 to 1, second; Oak Leaf, 105 (Bunn), 8 to 5, third. Time, 1:1021%.

When Byron McClelland was East last year and won selling race after selling race with Prince Lief the closest observers made up their minds that the son of King Erle was in reality a stake horse of hish quality. Perkins, who rode the colt, gave McClelland some fits of nervousness by occasionally drawing finishes very fine, but he was riding to orders, and the astute Byron was giving them himself.

When Prince Lief won so handily this spring, a mile and a sixteenth in 1:46% lots of the talent said: "Wait till this fellow meets the cracks and you'll see a horse race." The day arrived resterday, and M. F. Dwyer's great pair, Hen Brush and Hen Eder, were taken into camp. Byron McClelland has had the skill to tick out in succession such cracks as Bermuda, Sallie McClelland, Henry of Navarre, Halma, and Prince Lief. Hats off to McClelland of Lexington, Ry.! Prince Lief is by King Eric, son of King Ernest, out of Elena, the dam of Elgin and other good performers. King Erle was bred at Brookdale stud.

To Tambien Killed at McGrathiana, LEXINGTON, Ky., May 21.—The great mare Yo Tambien is dead. She was brought to Mc-Grathiana two months ago and bred to Hanover, and yesterday afternoon while romping in the paddock with Hessie, W. H. Laudeman's mare, she ran against a fence. The end of a rail penetrated her abdomen, entering on the right side near the fourth rib and piercing the diaphragm. She lived lifteen minutes.

Yo Tambien's triumphs on the turf are fresh in the minds of horsemen, she having raced until last season, when Chris Smith, her owner, concluded to place her in the stud, where he hoped she would achieve fame equal to that of her dam, the renowned Marian, the dam of more fast-class race horses than any other mare on the American continent. Her sire, Joe Hooker, was also reasonably successful, and every one expected her product by Hanover to be endowed with excellent racing qualities. Mr. Smith lost Maid Marian three months ago by an accident to her in her stable at Memphis, mare, she ran against a fence. The end of a rail Young Colt Larable, on, May 21.—Larable, 2:12%, has been sent to J lalcoim Forbes's farm, Ponkapog, the home of Nancy Hanks, Arion, and the three-year-old litingen. Arion's recent lilness left him in no condition for stud duties, and the marcs which were to have been bred to him were transferred to Bingen's book. Bather than disappoint any of his patrons, iir. Forbes decided to select an outside horse for some of his own mares. The choice fell on Larable, and arrangements were at once made with Manager George W. Leavitt.
